

School of Forestry

Fire and Forest Management Professional Undergraduate Certificate

Class Information and Instructions Winter 2024

FOR 425: Forest Management Apps in GIS

(course number for enrollment: 1002)

Geographic Information Systems (GIS) and its use in forestry and fire management. Emphasis on concepts and material relevant to fire-related disciplines and specialties. Specific training in ArcGIS Pro software through on-line training. Letter grade only.

Textbook Information

Required: None. All course materials and data will be provided.

Recommended: None

Course Dates, December 16th, 2024 to January 10th, 2025

The class begins December 16th with online sessions and requires web access and an NAU email account. Course readings and lab exercises can be accessed online beginning December 16th.