Definitions

Refer to 1. Procurement General Provisions

Policy

Under Arizona Revised Statutes (A.R.S.) § 41-2501.F, the Arizona Board of Regents is mandated to establish rules that outline procurement policies and procedures, ensuring they are substantially similar to those detailed in A.R.S. Chapter 23. The Arizona Board of Regents Policy Manual, specifically Article H-University Procurement Code, sets forth procurement policies for the Arizona Board of Regents in alignment with A.R.S. requirements.

Section 3-808 of the University Procurement Code sets forth policies for intergovernmental procurement related to University Procurements. This University Policy supplements such Section 3-808.

Section I: Responsibility

- A. CPRM shall approve use of any intergovernmental or cooperative procurement contract and verify:
 - 1. The intergovernmental or cooperative procurement contract specifically covers the University's proposed Procurement; and
 - 2. The price is competitive; and
 - 3. The intergovernmental or cooperative procurement award meets eligibility for the University's use.
- B. Contracts awarded by the State of Arizona may be used without additional bidding if approved by CPRM.
